

THE KANSAS SCRAP.

How Close a Call it Was to Blood Letting at the Kansas Capitol.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 20.—The real facts as to how bloodshed was avoided in Kansas, are now coming to light, and it develops that it was a much closer call than most people are aware of, as Governor Lewelling retracted his signature to the peace measures, within twenty minutes after he had signed them. Upon hearing of his intention, Mr. Cubbison, of Wyandotte, went to him and said:

"Governor, do I understand that you wish to take your name from this paper?"

The governor answered that he had signed it under duress and under mistaken ideas. Judge Foster is said to have been with him, and told him that the populists would never forgive him and possibly he would not escape serious trouble, so he decided to withdraw from the agreement. Mr. Cubbison then said to him:

"Governor, if you withhold your signature from the paper there will be 1,000 men killed within twenty minutes, and you will be one of them. The house is ready to fight for its rights. It will tolerate imprisonment no longer. It has been hard to hold the members back. The sergeants-at-arms are ready and well armed, and the sheriff cannot control his men outside much longer. The fight will begin as soon as you say so and it will begin in this corridor, in front of your office. Think what you are doing."

Governor Lewelling reached out his hand and said:

"Give me the paper. Let it stand."

This alone averted war.

—A farmer named George Lowry, residing near Tarkio, hanged himself Sunday morning. He had probably heard how the farmers' leader, Lewelling, had flattened out and wanted to get out of the world.

—It is altogether likely that the $3,750, which a Sedalia young man recently drew in a lottery, will be the last money he will make until he is compelled to work to buy victuals and clothes.—Kansas City Star.

—Leonard Cash and John Shields, miners in No. 13 of the Rich Hill Coal Mining company, were seriously hurt by falling slate Monday afternoon. Cash has since died and Shields seems to be slated for death.

—Major James W. Lewis died at his home in Glasgow yesterday, after a protracted illness. Major Lewis has been prominent in the business circles of this state for the past 50 years. He was a member of the firm of Ben W. Lewis & Bro., who at one time were, perhaps, the most extensive buyers, shippers and manufacturers of tobacco west of the Alleghany Mountains.

—Frank Hall, a well known painter in Carthage, was made the victim of a joke Sunday night. He was encouraged to dig for a supposed lost treasure under the old building now occupied by Berry & Kitching, and while in the act was discovered by the police who arrested him for trespassing. He went so far as to put on an old suit of clothes in which to crawl under the building among the cobwebs. About 175 were present to give him the "horse laugh" when he put up his money.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

I again write you to say I have lost 13 pounds, making 42 pounds lost in 10 weeks by using 4 bottles of Dr. Edison's Obesity Pills and wearing his Obesity Band.

Very truly yours, CHAS. H. KING.

Prof. HALE, Chicago University, writes to the Chicago Herald, Sept. 18, 1892:

Corrupt men, should pay some attention to reducing their weight. When a man is troubled with rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney trouble or nervousness, the reducing of weight is slower, until the Obesity Pills have cured the disease that caused obesity. The pills soften and beautify the skin of the face.

I am at liberty to cite a case in point. Under my advice Mr. Armour used an Edison Obesity Band and 3 bottles of Pills and lost 29 pounds in 6 weeks. Other patients have been equally successful.

Lieut. G. A. SCOTT, Revenue Cutter Hamilton, writes to the Correspondence Department of the New York Sunday World:

Three years ago I weighed 268 pounds, but after using Dr. Edison's Obesity Pills and Salts I reduced to 169 pounds and easily keep at this weight. I saw how much other correspondents of your valuable papers were benefited and wished to give the Dr.'s treatment a trial.

Dr. Edison's Obesity Fruit Salt is the best and simplest remedy for regulating the action of the liver that has been discovered. The printed formula on the label of the Fruit Salts shows their value to sufferers from excessive fat or flesh.
